DIY December at the Main Library

If you are in the crafting frame of mind but want someone to figure out the project for you, we have the perfect solution! Check out DIY December sessions at the Main Library! On December 2 at 10 am, make a canvas pouch with hand-stitch embroidery. On December 7 at 5 pm, create a Singlade Ball (a yarn craft originating in Denmark and southern Sweden). So cool! Finally, on December 15 at 10 am, etch your own wintery-themed drinking glass. Give your work as gifts - or keep them for yourself. We won't tell! Sign up for these popular classes now!

Savoy Big Band Holiday Concert

December 1 | 6:00 | Perry Sippo Branch

Swing to your favorite songs of the season at the Savoy Big Band 10th Annual Holiday Concert. The Perry Sippo Friends of the Library brings the incredible sound of the 13-piece band to the Exploration Gateway, adjacent to the Perry Sippo Branch. The band sounds like the Chick Webb Band that played at the Savoy Night Club in New York City from 1931 to 1939. Recreate the so-called “home of happy feet,” dancing to your heart's delight as the band plays and sings.

Seasonal Swing!

Closed Thanksgiving

Happy Thanksgiving to all of our wonderful patrons! All locations close at 5:00 pm on Wednesday, November 23, and remain closed on Thursday, November 24, for the holiday. We are giving our staff some time off to enjoy Turkey Day with their families. We will be ready to welcome you back after the pumpkin pie!

Tis' the Season for Fun

There is so much to do at the Library as we head into the holiday season. Meet Santa! Explore how other countries celebrate the holidays! Work the wiggles out of your little ones with Storytime and music events. So much is here for you. Click below to see all of our events.
