

Dolly Parton's Imagination Library

Did you know that you can get a free book each month for your child until they turn five? You can, with the Stark County Imagination Library! With the support of Dolly Parton's Imagination Library, each child in Stark County can get an age-appropriate book to add to their library every month - at no cost! That means by the time they turn five, your child may have 60 books in their personal library!

Trail Tales

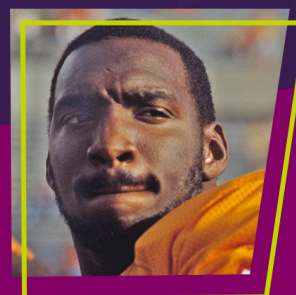

Don't forget to stop by Sippos Lake Park each month to read the new adventure on Trail Tales - our first permanent story walk. This month's book is In the Small, Small Pond, by Denise Fleming. This is a perfect book for Trail Tales, as it is about a child exploring the wonders of nature around a freshwater pond.

Meet the Founders of the

Black College Football Hall of Fame

Sep 1 | 6:30 pm
Canton Palace Theatre

Meet James Harris and Doug Williams, founders of the Black College Football Hall of Fame, along with football historian, Joe Horrigan at the Dr. Audrey Lavin Speaking of Books Author Series. They'll discuss their contributions to the game. Adrian Allison, Pro Football Hall of Fame Chief Relationship Officer, will facilitate this panel discussion. Q & A and book signing will follow.
