

ENTERTAINMENT

Actor Danny Trejo speaking in Canton at free Kent State and Stark Library event

Ed Balint

The Repository

Published 2:25 p.m. ET Feb. 2, 2023

CANTON – Actor, restaurateur and pop culture personality Danny Trejo will speak March 9 at a free event presented by Kent State University at Stark and the Stark Library.

Trejo will take the stage at the Canton Palace Theatre as part of the library system's Dr. Audrey Lavin Speaking of Books Author Series.

"Danny Trejo has developed a prolific career in the entertainment industry with a hard-earned and atypical road to success," a news release from Kent Stark said. "From years of imprisonment to helping troubled youth battle drug addictions, from acting to producing, and now on to restaurant ventures, Trejo's name, face and achievements are well recognized around the world."

Stark Library news: Library unveils $54 million plan for new Main Library, Operations Center

Trejo, author of the memoir, "Trejo: My Life of Crime, Redemption and Hollywood," has starred in numerous films and television shows while also working as a voice artist in video games.

Danny Trejo: Actor is 'overwhelmed' by ancestry discovery that 'could've changed' his life
He has appeared in the films "Desperado," "Heat," "Con Air," "Spy Kids" and "Machete," among other credits.

Trejo recently expanded his Trejo's Tacos eateries, and released a cookbook, "Trejo's Tacos: Recipes and Stories from LA."

The event is at 7 p.m. Doors open at 6:15 p.m. and all seating is first come, first served.

Tickets are free but must be reserved online at <https://starklibrary.bibliocommons.com/events/63a08a9e25d028300044ed64>. No tickets will be distributed in-person.

Reach Ed at 330-580-8315 and ebalint@gannett.com

On Twitter @ebalintREP