

Today, we began the transition to our redesigned website, which will make it easier for you to enjoy and find everything you love in the Digital Library! We officially welcome you to the new website!

What are the benefits?

Our new website makes it easier to:

- Find what you need with simple, intuitive navigation and search tools. Search based on format, age, interests, and more!
- Discover resources, services, and programs related to your search.
- Get details quickly on homepage with a feed of upcoming events and programs, featured resources, and lists of popular titles front and center.
- Access content easier with improved readability.
- Use on your phone. The new site is optimized for mobile.
- Connect through our popular, new catalog that integrates with the website. It features librarian-curated lists and reader recommendations. A booklover's dream!

We need you!

We hope you love it, but we won't know unless we hear from you. We planned the redesign with your needs in mind. If you're finding it a dream to navigate, search, and discover, let us know. If you're challenged by something or have questions, let us know that too. If you have an idea of something else you might like to see, give us your two cents, nickel, dime, or quarter's worth of input. We need it all.

We researched and worked for a long time to get this right - and we think we did, but we need you to make sure everything works well, down to the smallest detail. Thanks for your help. See you online!
